The charter granted to Boston College in 1863 is reproduced here from the original document in the possession of the College. The men whose names appear on the document — the first trustees and the officials who signed the act — constitute an interesting group.

He was elected to the lower branch of the state legislature in 1857, served a term, declined re-election. In 1860 he was elected governor on the Republican ticket by the greatest popular majority recorded in the state up to that time. Was re-elected four times, serving till January, 1866. A great executive, liberal, humane, visioned. An uncompromising opponent of slavery, but at the end of the war urged a friendly attitude toward the southern states, and "reconstruction without retribution". Also opposed the notorious "Know-nothing" movement. Though not a Catholic, he frequently attended the Immaculate Conception Church, and proved himself a real friend of the Jesuit Fathers and of the new Boston College. He died at the age of forty-nine, Oct. 30, 1867.

Just as for

First National Stores has come a long way over the years, from the corner store which was once so much a part of almost every New England community to the magnificent, modern supermarkets which range from Northern Maine to New York and New Jersey in our own day. But basic “storekeeping” principles have not changed at First National — and they won’t.

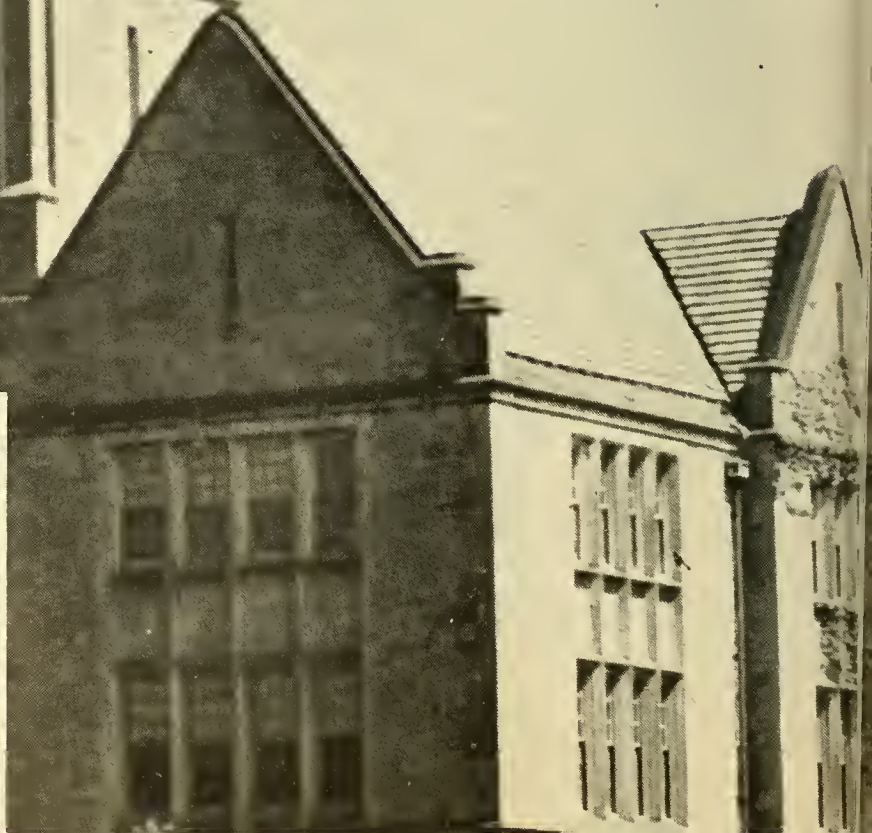

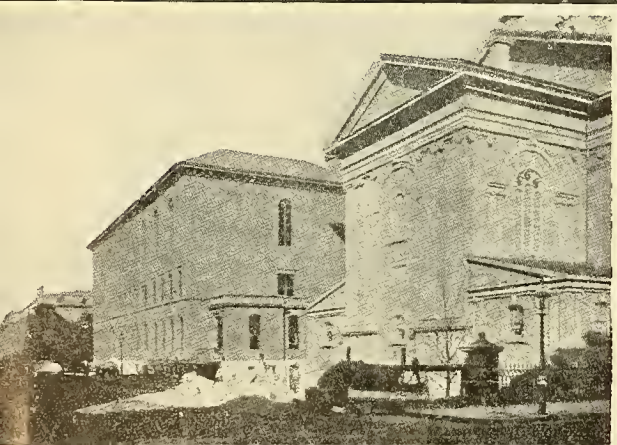

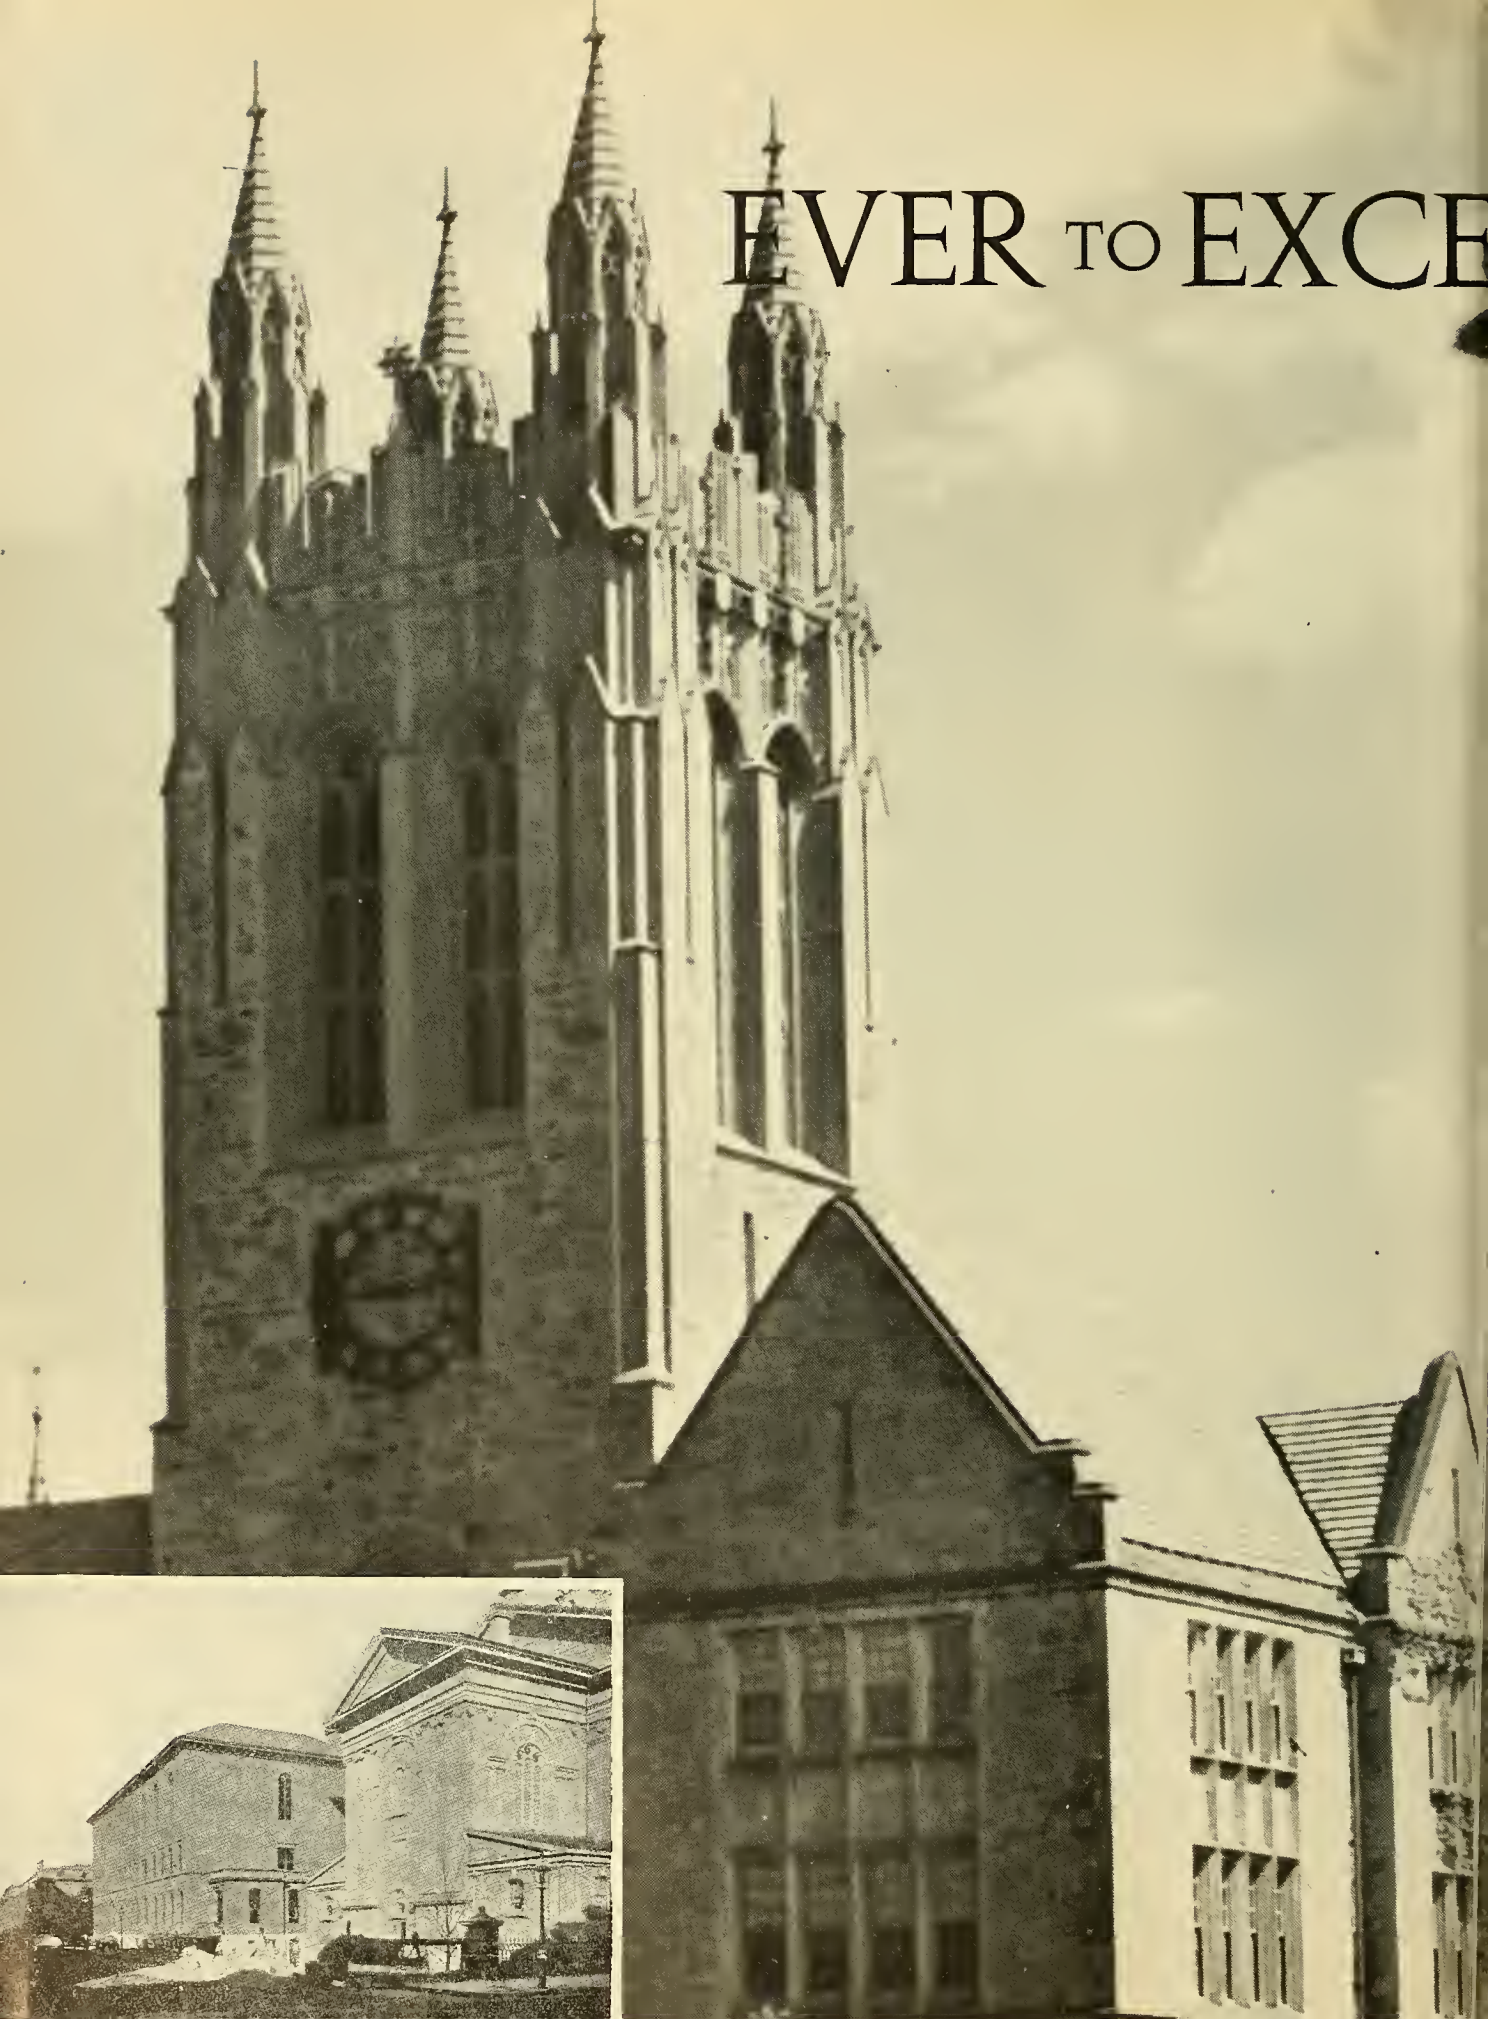

Today, just as for generations, First National knows that there is no economy without quality. Insistence upon rigid standards of excellence prevail now, as they always have. Quality is guaranteed.

First National is also dedicated to thrift . . . to lowest possible prices for its customers every shopping day of the year.

Today First National is quite as concerned as ever with matters of friendliness and courteous service and dependability . . . with providing the very best in foods and food shopping, in the famous First National tradition.

“The Jesuit college in Boston has risen on foundations laid with patient and undramatic labor by a large number of men over a period of many decades. These builders were of necessity men of vision, of courage, of faith, of perseverance; but it happened they were also men of humility, who regarded their own efforts of small moment and not worth recording, in consequence of which, details of their sacrifices and the year-by-year chronicle of the steps they took to establish Catholic higher education in Boston have almost perished from memory.” (Fr. David Dunigan, S.J., ‘A History of Boston College’)

■ There is an old adage that says names make news, a truth evident to all, an unchallenged premise. Names have been written into the blazing pages of history, names have enlightened the world through music, the arts and the world of science. Names evoke memories of people, of things past and present, of joys and sorrows. As Boston College approaches its second century with the celebration of its Centennial, there are many names which light the corridors of memory for Boston College men everywhere: McElroy, Bapst, Fulton, Dolan, Gasson, McHugh, Mulcahy, Maxwell, Walsh, Sullivan, and a host of others, names of dedicated men of God who gave of themselves that Boston College might reach the heights in its motto, so boldly written on its seal "Ever to Excell".

As the second century of the University begins with a myriad of activities marking this 100th birthday, there will be many more names, which like those past, will take their places in the future of Boston College.

"I am an old professor. It's no problem for me to talk." So saying, Augustin Cardinal Bea, the President of the Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity launched into a discussion of the intricacies of Christian reconciliation. Known as the "Cardinal of Reunion" for his work in the Ecumenical Council, primarily working with the various Protestant sects and other non-Catholics, Cardinal Bea, the German Jesuit is one of the great Catholic biblical scholars of our time. He was the head of the Pontifical Biblical Institute for twenty years and his work "On the Inspiration of Sacred Scripture", although a generation old, rates as a major work in that field.

The German born Cardinal entered the Society of Jesus in Holland in 1902, became Prefect of Studies and Professor of Sacred Scripture at the Jesuit scholasticate in Valkenburg, Holland and later was named Provincial of the Society for Southern Germany. After coming to the Pontifical Biblical Institute, Fr. Bea's outstanding work drew the attention of Pius XI to this scholarly young priest, whose ecclesiastical career then began to open up. One of the clerics who prepared the documents on the Dogma of the Assumption, Fr. Bea had a decisive part in the final draft of the encyclical "Divino Afflante Spiritu", the document of Pius XII which Catholic scholars generally consider the foundation of modern Catholic biblical study.

Created a Prince of the Church in December, 1959 by Pope John XXIII, Cardinal Bea has ceaselessly continued his work in the Congregation of Rites, the Congregation for the Oriental Church as well as his prime position, that of promoting Christian Unity.

Invited to the United States by Richard Cardinal Cushing, during the last session of the Ecumenical Council, Cardinal Bea will be honored by Boston College at a special University Convocation on Tuesday, March 26 in Roberts Center as part of the Centennial celebration.

■ One of America's foremost young composers of liturgical music, C. Alexander Peloquin, the Director of the University Chorale, has been commissioned by Boston College to compose the music for the Centennial Mass of Thanksgiving, which will be the opening event of the University's Centennial celebration.

On Saturday, March 30, 1963, in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, the University Chorale consisting of over 180 male and female voices and the thirty-five piece Festival orchestra will present the stirring music of Mr. Peloquin's Mass.

The music of this extremely creative and artistic young composer has been heard all over the world; his "Give Praise to the Lord" is used as a theme song for some of the major religious programs produced over the NBC and CBS networks, his "Apostles' Creed" was played at the Vatican Pavilion of the 1958 World's Fair in Brussels and his "Mass in Honor of St. Michael the Archangel" was previewed in the Providence Cathedral in 1959.

A man of tremendous, driving energy, Mr. Peloquin won the Golden Bell Award for musical production on the Catholic Hour, his choral groups have appeared in nine nationwide telecasts, he founded the 200 voice Woonsocket Civic Chorus and during World War II was decorated by the Belgian Resistance.

The celebrant of this Centennial Mass of Thanksgiving will be the Most Rev. Egidio Vagnozzi, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, with His Eminence, Richard Cardinal Cushing preaching. Among the officials at this Mass will be Very Rev. John J. O'Connor, S.J., New England Provincial of the Society of Jesus, Very Rev. Michael P. Walsh, S.J., President of Boston College, Rev. William J. Murphy, S.J. and Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., both former presidents of the University. Included in the solemn procession preceding the Mass will be the Knights of the Holy Sepulcher, the Knights of Gregory, the Knights of Malta and the Knights of Columbus who will form an honor guard for the bishops, monsignori and priests invited to the Mass. Other representatives in the procession will be the student senior class officers, members of the Alumni Board and lay faculty in academic gown. Among the invited guests will be delegates from many other colleges and universities in the United States and national, state and city government officials.

It is expected that the alumni attendance at this Centennial Mass will tax the facilities of the Cathedral. All Alumni should plan to make their arrangements as early as possible with their class representatives to assure their attendance at the Mass and luncheon.

Following the Solemn Pontifical Mass, the University will hold a reception and luncheon on the campus in the main dining room of McElroy Commons.

His Excellency, the Most Rev. John J. Wright, Bishop of the diocese of Pittsburgh, former Auxiliary Bishop of Boston and a graduate of the Class of 1931 will be the luncheon speaker.

■ The Ecumenical Council will have its counterpart at Boston College, when the Centennial celebration will present the Theological Conference on April 15 and 16. Leading internationally known theologians will present a discussion on "The Church" and "Tradition", at which scholars and leaders in the field of Christian thought will be able to share in the exchange of ideas between the major participants.

From Germany, the Rev. Hans Küng, Dean of the Catholic Theological Faculty at the University of Tübingen, will concentrate his portion of the discussion on the teaching authority of the Church. Professor Küng acted as the Theologian for the Bishop of Rottenburg and has been acclaimed in ecclesiastical circles for his book, "The Council, Reform and Reunion". Prior to appearing at the University for this Theological Conference, Fr. Küng has accepted the invitation to be the 1963 Candlemas lecturer on March 21, when he will speak in Bapst Auditorium on "The Church and Freedom".

Participating with Professor Küng on the panel on the Church will be Dr. Jaroslav Pelikan, Jr., who is the Titus Street Professor of Ecclesiastical History at Yale University, one of the outstanding figures in modern Protestant scholarship. Dr. Pelikan is a member of the Theological Commission on Tradition for the World Council of Churches and has authored a widely discussed volume entitled "The Riddle of Roman Catholicism".

"The work of unity is the work of every Christian"

Representing the Tradition discussion will be the Rev Jean Danielou, S.J., Professor of Theology at the Institute Catholique in Paris and a member of the theological faculty at the University of Paris. Fr. Danielou has authored numerous works on the Bible, Liturgy and the Theology of Judeo-Christianity. From Stanford University, California, Dr. Robert McAfee Brown will represent the Protestant view on Tradition. Dr. Brown was formerly Auburn Professor of Systematic Theology at the Union Theological School and collaborated with the famed Jesuit theologian Rev. Gustave Weigel, S.J. on the book, "An American Dialogue".

Church scholars, Theologians, heads of seminars and theological schools throughout the United States, editors of denominational and national publications in the nation will be invited to the conference session.

■ In a memorable address before a joint session of the Congress of the United States in February, 1962, Astronaut Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., USMC said in closing, "As our knowledge of the Universe in which we live increases, may God grant us the wisdom and guidance to use it wisely".

On April 17 through 19, the Centennial Colloquy will discuss this modern problem under the conference title, "The Knowledge Explosion; its Limitation and Liberations". Nationally known scholars in the fields of the humanities, the social sciences and physical sciences will lead the various panel discussions during this three day colloquy.

This Centennial Colloquy will be presented in a two part series on each day. The morning sessions will consist of a panel discussion by two prominent men in their field discussing the impact of the general theme of the knowledge explosion. These sessions will be held in the main dining room of McElroy Commons, and our alumni are most welcome to participate. The afternoon series will be closed panel discussions during which other scholars, along with the morning speakers, will present articles and participate in general discussions on the theme subject.

Representing the natural sciences will be Dr. Samuel A. Goudsmit of the Brookhaven National Laboratory and Dr. John G. Kemeny, Chairman of Boston College, which will be presented on May 11.

Written by famed Scottish-born James Forsyth, the play, "Seven Scenes for Yeni," is the story of a beloved comedian, denied to play to audiences because his gift of comic satire has been used so effectively against the repressive party in power. A modern legend, whose main character is a contemporary St. Genesius, it could also be the tragedy of spiritual optimism in a materialistic and pessimist world.

Mr. Forsyth has been associated with the Old Vic theatre in London for many years, and is well known in this country for his work in the Broadway productions of "Heloise" and his nativity play "Emmanuel." He wrote the screen play for "St. Francis of Assisi" and produced a number of dramas on British radio and television.

The play will be directed by one of America's top directors, Eddie Dowling, a veteran of many Broadway shows, while Francis W. Sidlauskas will be the executive producer. Dowling a native of Woonsocket, R.I., staged some of the American theatre's most important plays: Eugene O'Neill's

"The Iceman Cometh"; William Saroyan's "The Time of Your Life" and Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie." He also produced and played in "Thumbs Up" and "Here Come the Clowns" by Philip Barry and "The Time of Your Life" which won the Pulitzer Prize and Drama Critics Award in 1940.

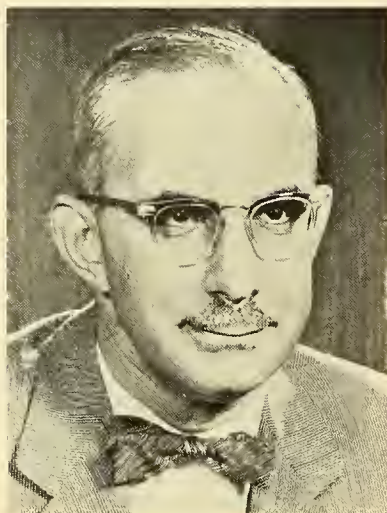

Dowling was the organizer and first president of the U.S. Camp Shows and is credited with discovering such famous stage names as Kate Smith, Maurice Evans and Tennessee Williams.

Sidlauskas, a graduate of the Class of 1947, received his master's degree in Fine Arts from Yale University School of Drama, and later taught English at Boston College, where he was also Director of Dramatics. A former General Manager of the Cambridge Festival, he is now Executive Director of the Boston Opera Group.

In connection with this Centennial Play, the University will sponsor on May 10 and 11 a seminar, "One Hundred Years of the American Theatre." Drama critics, playwrights, producers and directors from all over the nation will take part in the two day series of panel discussions.

Opening with a luncheon on May 10, John Gassner, Sterling Professor of Playwriting at Yale University will give the keynote address.

Among those appearing at the panel sessions on Friday, which will be moderated by Professor John L. Mahoney, Chairman of the English Department at Boston College are Richard Coe, drama critic of the Washington Post, Sydney Harris, author of "A Majority of One" and drama critic of the Chi-

A second panel, discussing some significant movements in theatre history, whose chairman is Dr. Harold Ehrensperger, Chairman of Theatre Arts, Boston University, will include Lee Strasberg, Director of the Actor's Studio, Jose Quintero, Director of the Circle-in-the-Square Theatre, N.Y., and Harlan Grant, Drama Director, Boston Conservatory of Music.

On Saturday, panels will cover the "Universities and Drama", "Community and Festival Theatres" and "The Professional Theatre Today." Some of the participants scheduled to appear are Professor F. Curtis Canfield, Dean of Yale University School of Drama, Professor Leo Brady of Catholic University, Richard Hoover, Director of the Pittsburgh Playhouse, Joseph Verner Reed, Producing Director, American Shakespeare Festival Theatre, Roger L. Stevens, a Director of the Metropolitan Opera Association and famed New York producer, and Howard Taubman, drama critic for the New York Times.

■ Over 1,500 students from 700 colleges and universities will take part in another Centennial event from May 2 thru 4. The 15th annual Eastern Colleges Science Conference will hold their sessions on the campus at Chestnut Hill.

Dr. George Kistiakowski of Harvard University, scientific advisor to President Kennedy and Dr. Shields Warren, associate director of the Cancer Research Institute will be the principal speakers.

This science conference began in 1947 to stimulate interest by students in the national sciences and related fields and the various panels will cover biology, physics, geology, mathematics, chemistry and the behavioral sciences.

■ Over 18 years ago, Rev. James F. Moynihan, S.J., nationally known for his contributions to the field of professional guidance, initiated a program of counselor training at Boston College. Now chairman of the department of Psychology, Fr. Moynihan will host the 9th annual National Catholic Guidance Conference, to be held at Boston College on April 5 and 6.

Guidance as an organized professional science was born in Boston 50 years ago, so it is quite fitting that the national conference of the American Personnel and Guidance Association will meet in Boston following the N.C.G.C. meeting at Boston College.

EDDIE DOWLING
Director, Centennial Play

Dr. William C. Cottle, Director of Counselor Education at Boston College, a past president of the American Catholic Psychological Association will give the keynote address of the conference, and local arrangements are being handled by Rev. George Lawlor, S.J., Director of Guidance in the College of Business Administration and Weston Jenks, Jr., Director of Guidance, College of Arts and Sciences.

Among the distinguished participants will be Willis E. Dugan, president elect of the American Personnel and Guidance Association from the University of Minnesota; Arthur W. Brown, Assistant Director, Advanced Placement Program, College Board Placement Examinations, Princeton, N.J.; Raymond J. Steimel, Assistant Professor of Education, Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.; Alexander A. Schneiders, Professor of Psychology, Boston College; Virginia Love, Associate Professor of Education, Columbia University, N.Y. and Raymond J. McCall, Director of Clinical Training, Marquette University, Milwaukee.

■ Still another Centennial event will take place on Saturday, May 25, when Boston College will host a Civil War Seminar for the History and Social Science Teachers of New England. This seminar is in connection with the Annual Assembly of the Civil War Centennial Commissions of the United States which will meet in Boston during the latter part of May.

Bruce Catton, Pulitzer Prize winner, Editor of the American Heritage magazine and author of many volumes of Civil War history will be the featured speaker on this occasion. It seems most fitting that Boston College should play an important part in these historical observances since one of the first benefactors of Boston College was Rev. Joseph Coolidge Shaw, an uncle of Col. Robert Gould Shaw, commander of the famed 54th Massachusetts Regiment.

■ Undergraduates of the University are also playing their role in the Centennial celebration. The editors of the senior class annual, "Sub Turri" are planning to issue a special Centennial volume of this yearbook, which will be available to alumni. The Student Senate of the College of Arts and Sciences has announced that on April 27, 1963 it will conduct a student conference concentrating on the theme: The University As a Community. Class officers and presidents of campus organizations will be invited to represent their organizations at the Conference.

The purpose of this conference is to explore the nature of a university community in general and in particular as it applies to Boston College. This will be followed by a panel consisting of a psychologist, sociologist, theologian, and political scientist all of whom will speak on university life as seen from their respective areas.

■ Of course, Boston College Alumni are also making their plans to celebrate this 100th birthday of their college. The first event will be the Alumni Homecoming Day which will take place on Saturday, May 4, under the direction of Chairman John "Bucky" Warren, '33. Present plans are to have an informal supper in McHugh Forum following the final Spring Football game, with other events being scheduled for further announcements.

On Sunday, June 2, in the beautiful main dining room of McElroy Commons, the Alumni will hold their special Centennial Banquet. James M. Connolly, '33, second vice-president of the Alumni Association has been named Chairman of the event.

This promises to be a busy year, a memorable year, one which will take its place in the future history of the second century of Boston College.

Rev. Martin P. Harney, S. J.

Had he known that during his lifetime he would teach over 20,000 students, perhaps Rev. Martin Harney, S.J., would have not become a teacher. Yet he accepted the challenge of his life's work forty years ago, and he is still fulfilling that challenge today.

His objective in teaching the three generations of students that have taken his courses has been to "mold and develop character" and "cultural training." Fr. Harney himself enrolled as a student at Boston College in 1915, when the only building then on campus was Gasson Hall, known to other generations as the Tower Building. At that time St. Mary's Hall was just being built. After graduating from Boston College in 1919, Fr. Harney continued his studies at Canisius College in Buffalo, N. Y., where he pursued studies in history. He received his master's degree at Woodstock College, Maryland, and he completed his theological studies at Weston. He also attended St. Bueno's College in North Wales, England.

Returning to B. C. in 1923 as a Scholastic, he began teaching history, as the only member of that department, and was ordained as a Jesuit in 1929. In 1939 he began teaching in the College of Business Administration, and he has taught nearly every C.B.A. student since that time.

He says that teaching in the College of Business Administration has been "like teaching in the old B. C. because of the practicality of outlook of these future businessmen."

Apart from his teaching, Fr. Harney is probably best known for his comprehensive history of the Society of Jesus, The Jesuits in History, which was first published in 1941. He has also written a pamphlet, The Traditions of Boston College, which is distributed to freshmen. Father Harney has also lectured extensively, especially on Irish history. For the past ten years he has been moderator of the Blessed Oliver Plunkett Society, and he is active in Irish cultural affairs in the Greater Boston area.

An expert on the history and traditions of Boston and Boston College, Fr. Harney's memory is rich with anecdotes of students and teachers. It is almost as rich as his rewarding career as a dedicated educator.

100th Anniversary Development Program

A partial listing of Alumni who, in addition to making their own pledges, serve on the several committees of the campaign divisions. They are primarily engaged in the personal solicitation of gifts. This list is by no means exclusive or even complete. There are many, many more who await assignment or who have already begun their work and will soon make their first report.

AUTHOR

A former teacher in the Boston Public Schools and at Catholic Memorial High School, WILLIAM J. GROSS, '18, has written a new novel called "Herod the Great".

William J. Gross, '18

Published by the Helicon Press, Baltimore, Maryland. The book tells the story of the king who attempted to murder the child Jesus. Mr. Gross has done substantial investigation and research, using the Talmud, the writings of Cicero, Plutarch, Virgil and others to produce one of the finest stories of a little known king.

A CATHOLIC FOR PERU

In answer to an urgent appeal of Pope John XXIII for help among the very poor of Latin America, THOMAS E. RYAN, JR., Class of '49, has given up all the comforts and facilities of modern living to volunteer for work among the poverty stricken people of Lima, Peru. Mr. Ryan, who started out with the class of '44, served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and returned to Boston College for his degree in 1949. Becoming interested in this visit work in Latin America through TECHO, Inc. of New York, Mr. Ryan gave up a successful insurance business and has taken his family to Peru in order to help raise the living conditions there by teaching and manual labor wherever necessary.

CBA

One of the many parts of the overall University Centennial Program was the College of Business Administration's celebration of its 25th anniversary of founding, topped by the Silver Anniversary Ball, held in the beautiful new McElroy Commons in November.

Among the hundreds of C.B.A. Alumni who attended this gala affair were Mr. and Mrs. RICHARD KING, '48, of Reading and Mr. and Mrs. JOHN CURRY, '45, of Arlington, shown above, entering McElroy lounge.

VICTORY FESTIVAL

After a lapse of more than two decades, years which saw our alumni scattered all over the globe, involved in World War II and the Korean conflict, the Alumni Association reinstituted the famed night before the Holy Cross game dance. This 1962 affair, the Victory Festival, ably chairmanned by JIM DERBA, '51, of Arlington, was a complete success. A sellout gathering of 800 alumni filled beautifully decorated Roberts Center for a fabulous evening of dining and dancing. All who attended were most enthusiastic in their praise, practically every class had one table or more, old friendships were renewed, and all evidence points towards this event remaining as one of the most popular alumni functions of the year.

SPOTLIGHT on SPORTS

by Eddie Miller, '57

John 'Snooks' Kelley and the Boston College hockey team continue to execute the 'impossible' as the season rushes into the game-packed second half and the N.C.A.A. championships at McHugh Forum in mid-March move closer.

The surprising Eagles have compiled the top defensive record in the East at press time, and — following the tremendous three-goal third period that bushwacked St. Lawrence, 3-2, on Jan. 26 — are rated with Clarkson atop the Eastern collegiate standing.

However, the Kelley men face a rugged eight-games-in-16-days stretch and then — following that arduous period — play at Harvard, Clarkson, and St. Lawrence and host Boston University within an eight-day span.

B.C. astounded the hockey world by whipping St. Lawrence and Clarkson on successive nights in Madison Square Garden to gain the E.C.A.C. Christmas Tourney title. At home in the Beanpot Tournament, B.C. gained the final by edging B.U. in overtime and in one of the finest college hockey games in years, took home the championship by downing Harvard 3-1. Hogan was named M.V.P., while Leetch, Aiken, Apprille and Callahan were named to the All Tourney team. Season record at press time stood at 17-3.

Hogan, the All-American from Belmont, has scored 12 goals and added 21 assists for 33 points while Leetch, the strongman from Braintree, has pocketed 13 goals — including the game-tying penalty shot in the second St. Lawrence game — and assisted on 16 for 29 points.

Apprille, a 5 ft. 10 in. junior from Arlington who came to B.C. after being a two-sport All-Scholastic for Eddie Burns, has allowed only 1.73 goals-per-game in Eastern play, and was selected to the E.C.A.C.'s all-tournament team for his outstanding play in the back-to-back sweep of the upstate New York powers.

Defensemen Jack Callahan and sophomore Ralph Toran have formed an almost impregnable combine while the much-improved Dave 'rock'm-sock'm' Duffy and experienced Rod O'Connor provide 'Snooks' with another top-notch blue line tandem.

The Kelley men opened the second half in flying fashion, bouncing back for three goals in the final period to trip the Larries, 3-2. Hogan scored the first at the six-minute mark, Leetch beat Richie Broadbelt on a penalty-shot at mid-period, and then Iorio whacked home Sullivan's rebound at 15:01 to give the Eagles their second straight over the visitors from Canton, N. Y.

The highlight of the first half, of course, was the tourney triumph at Madison Square Garden.

On opening night, B.C. and St. Lawrence played a dull first period and then the Larries grabbed a 1-0 lead on a freakish goal. However, Hogan, the tourney M.V.P., slapped home the tie-breaker from a face-off a few seconds later.

Then, with B.C. shorthanded, Hogan intercepted a rink-wide Larrie pass at his own blue line, outskated two defenders, and beat Broadbelt with a high flip to the far corner. Seconds later, Flaherty skated through three New Yorkers and slid a backhand under Broadbelt to make it 3-1.

Goals by Paul Aiken and Leetch completed the rout.

Clarkson had defeated B.C. by a 3-0 score at McHugh Forum a week earlier and was a heavy choice in the final, but the crowd of 9000 sensed an upset from the start.

Leetch sent Hogan in alone early in the opening session and Billy beat Wayne Gibbons to the near side for a quick 1-0 margin. Then, captain Aiken intercepted a Clarkson pass and beat Gibbons with a 25-footer to the far side.

Apprille was sensational at the other end and then Hogan made it 3-0 when — with B.C. two-men short — he took a Leetch pass at mid-ice, skated in alone, and decked Gibbons before flipping a backhand over the prostrate goalie.

Hogan, Leetch, Apprille, and Jack Callahan were selected on the all-tourney team and 'Snooks' was the toast of Boston at Christmastime.

BASKETBALL

Captain Gerry Ward — the finest college basketball player in New England, if not the East.

The B.C. quintet has played 15 games this season, winning five and dropping 10, and after every game the opposing coach has told Frank Power that 'Gerry Ward is the finest player that we've played against this season.'

Consider the 6 ft. 4 in., 200-pound Ward's credentials.

Nick Werkman of Seton Hall led the

Guard John Austin, versatile sharpshooter Tom Kelly, and 6 ft. 5 in. boardman Manny Papoula loom as sure starters next season when Bob Cousy takes over at the Heights. Austin drives, hits from outside, and is an excellent playmaker. Kelley has an exceptional touch from anywhere on the court, and Papoula, another well-coached product of Durfee's Luke Urban and Tom Karam, has strong hands, good spring, and gets rid of the Rounding out the squad are 147-pound Jeff Cates, 137-pound Bart O'Connor, 130-pound Bobby Daley, and 123-pound Jerry Amann.

Thanks to a good friend of the class who prefers to remain anonymous I have been informed certain items of importance were omitted from the previous issue of Alumni News. In February 1962, George Hickey, a nephew of our late classmate FATHER FRANK SALLOWAY, was ordained to the priesthood. Unfortunately, Mrs. Hickey passed away a short time later. Also at this ordination Francis J. Murphy, the son of our classmate FRANK MURPHY, was raised to the dignity of the priesthood. Last July, Mary Louise Gannon, the daughter of TOM GANNON, was married to Peter Brady of Lynn who is Assistant District Attorney of Essex County.

A movement is developing among one segment of the class to stage a gala spring reunion as part of our Golden Anniversary program. Plans now call for an Anniversary Mass, followed by a banquet in Alumni Hall. In addition to our classmates, their wives and children will be invited. Your reaction to this idea will be appreciated.

14 JOHN S. KEOHANE
1147 Tremont St., Boston

REV. IGNATIUS W. COX, S.J., stationed for many years at Fordham University, celebrated the Sixtieth Anniversary of his entrance into the Society of Jesus in October. BISHOP MacKENZIE, our Class President, was unable to attend the celebration but sent him a Toast in the name of the Class. Father Cox is one of the three remaining Professors who taught us at the old College. With many happy memories of by-gone days we say "AD MULTOS FELICISSIMOS ANNOS"! The sympathy of the Class is extended to LEO H. GRUETER on the death of his brother Albert. May his soul rest in peace.

On Sunday, October 7, FATHER JAMES J. KELLEY, S.J., our esteemed classmate, celebrated the Fiftieth Anniversary of his entrance into the Society of Jesus. Having graduated from Boston College High School with us in 1910 and having finished two years at the College, he left us to enter the Society. He was ordained in 1925 and taught for many years at the Heights. When the new Boston College Business School began to develop, Father JIM was appointed Dean and after World War II when the enrollment had tripled, he designed and supervised the erection of the new Business School Administration building and as he was about to take over his post, he was appointed Rector at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in town and commissioned to build the new Boston College High building on Morrissey Boulevard in Dorchester. He served as Rector for eight years and was at the same time Spiritual Director of the Catholic Alumni Sodality which, under his tutelage, continued to grow. At present he is assisting Father Provincial at the Provincial House in Boston. "Many more happy fruitful years in the service of God, Father JIM!"

15 JOHN J. WALSH
15 Pondview Ave., Jamaica Plain

A large group of priests, doctors, nuns, nurses and friends attended the Requiem Solemn High Mass for DR. JAMES F. GALLAGHER at Saint Ignatius Church. "Jimmie" Gallagher was a fine athlete at Boston College and has never missed an athletic event since graduation. Our sincere sympathy to his wife, two daughters and son.

Prayers are requested for the repose of the soul of REVEREND JOHN N. CUNNINGHAM, Pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Beachmont, who recently passed away. He left our class after sophomore year and entered St. John's Seminary. "Jack" was a faithful alumnus and will be greatly missed by his classmates.

RIGHT REVEREND JOHN J. ALLSTON preached the sermon at Saint Joseph's in Quincy for the Holy Name Society of that District.

FATHER THOMAS BUTLER, S.J., celebrated his Golden Jubilee as a Jesuit.

The Incomplete List of the Special Gifts Donors to the 100th Anniversary Fund has just been issued, and the Class of 1915 is represented by 7 donors. We hope by the next issue that there will be many more.

16 JAMES L. O'BRIEN

FRED GILLIS is now a Director of the Museum of Fine Arts and the Museum of Science. He was recently appointed a Director of Action for Boston Community Development, which has received grants from the Ford Foundation and the Federal Government to work in the gray areas of Boston. Fred still has time to enjoy his twenty grandchildren.

Our classmate, GEORGE F. SMITH, S.J., died on September 18, 1962. Kindly remember him in your prayers.

Our Freshman teacher, FR. COX, celebrated his 60th anniversary as a member of the Jesuit Order.

MONSIGNOR DALTON recently retired as Spiritual Director of the National Council of Nurses.

JACK ATKINSON was a participant in the B.C. Seminar on "Responsibility in Public Life". He was later given a testimonial dinner at the Hotel Statler for his contribution to good government.

CARDINAL CUSHING presided at a funeral Mass on December 20 for Sister M. Damian, O.P. of the Dominican Sisters of the Congregation of St. Rose of Lima, known also as the Rose Hawthorne Sisters. At the time of her death she was the superior of the Rose Hawthorne Lathrop Home in Fall River. Sr. Damian was one of five religious in the same family. She had two brothers the late REV. JOSEPH J. KEENAN, first pastor of St. Elizabeth's Parish, Milton and Rt. Rev. Francis L. Keenan, Parish Priest of St. Michael's Parish, Lowell. Two sisters in religion are Sister Angela, S.N.D., formerly Dean at Trinity College, Washington and Emmanuel College, Boston, who is presently in Tewksbury, and Sister Mary Elizabeth of the Sisters of St. Joseph, former Supervisor of Schools, Springfield. Among those present at the Mass was RT. REV. FRANCIS N. FLAHERTY of St. Mary of the Hills, Milton.

REV. FRANCIS X. QUINN observed the "One Hundred Years of Brotherhood in the West End" of St. Joseph's Parish in September. CARDINAL CUSHING presided at the Centennial Mass celebrated by FR. QUINN. Among the religious present was RT. REV. ALBERT SHEA. Following the Mass a Centennial Banquet was held at Hotel Bradford. The mother of President Kennedy brought the greetings of the Chief Executive to the parishioners of the old church which is scheduled to be renovated to serve the New West End.

NICK PETROCELLI has suffered the loss of his sister, Mrs. Mary Bellotti, mother of Lt. Governor Francis X. Bellotti. The sympathy of the class is extended to the Petrocelli and to the Bellotti families. May she rest in peace.

MARTY HIGGINS retired in September from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service after 43 years of employment in the Boston office. Marty and his wife, Julia, flew to the Orient, visiting Tokyo, Hong Kong, Thailand and other interesting places. They returned by boat and visited in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Best wishes, Marty. Enjoy your well earned leisure.

SILK O'LOUGHLIN has been living at St. John of God Manor in Brighton since November. Word was received from FR. FRANK CAFFREY, M.M. in Los Angeles that Silk was not well. We checked with JIM KELLEY in Lowell and were informed that Silk's condition was indeed serious. Please remember him in your prayers.

JIM KELLEY tells us that he retired from the advertising staff of the Lowell Sun a year ago having completed 28 years with the Sun. He was one of the first to retire under that paper's new retirement fund plan. Prior to going with the Sun, Jim was advertising manager of Gilchrist's in Boston. He is a past president of the League of Catholic Laymen. Following his retirement Jim taught for a short time at Keith Academy.

BO MAHONEY had the joyful satisfaction of his life in being present with his family to witness the ordination of his son, Thomas F., as a priest in the Society of St. Columban at the Major Seminary in Milton on December 21st by Bishop Minihan. Fr. Mahoney offered his First Solemn Mass on December 30th in the Church of St. Ignatius. Assisting him were Very Rev. Eamonn O'Dougherty, Rector of St. Columban's Seminary and Rev. James Rafferty of St. John's Seminary. The sermon was delivered by Rev. Thomas M. Herlihy, S.J. of the Church of St. Ignatius. Among the religious in attendance were MSGR. ALBERT SHEA and FR. MAURICE DULLEA, S.J. Among those attending the reception in Alumni Hall were DR. CY LYDON, CHARLEY SHARKEY, FRANK HEANUE, JOHN FLYNN, MARTY HIGGINS and TOM CRAVEN. The other boys in the Mahoney family are Michael, a freshman at St. Michael's College, Winooski Park, Vt., Roland, B.C. '57, M. Sgt. USAAF recently returned from Germany and now in charge of the ROTC at Purdue Univ., Lafayette, Ind., and Mark, B.C. '55 with American Viscose in Los Angeles.

Your humble scribe announces that he has retired from the Boston Schools after 39 years, 22 years of it as Principal of the Mather School in Dorchester. He had taught for 2 years in Fall River before coming into Boston.

Through the courtesy of NAT HASENFUS, we are informed that John the son of our late MARTY KANE has been in the armed services in Ethiopia for the past eighteen months. Prior to induction he was a Junior in B. C. Evening College.

Sympathy and prayers of the class for CHARLIE REILLY and family on the recent death of his mother at an advanced age.

THOMAS REYNOLDS, JR., son of our Tom recently was one of a group of Chicago business men who purchased the Milwaukee Braves. This makes the second coup of this nature in which he has participated; the first also in this year, being the purchase of the Chicago White Sox.

In an interesting letter, CLARENCE PIKE opines the bulk of the class is letting me down by not providing me with news items. You know he has something there.

We hear from DAN MURPHY periodically, as he travels about to various seminars and conferences as Director of the Bureau of Deceptive Practices of the Federal Trade Commission, delivering addresses to improve the moral tone of trade practices.

DAN HARKINS has retired from the Government Service. His last assignment was at Conarky, Guinea, Africa. He is enjoying his retirement at 4227 South 35th St., Arlington 6, Virginia.

Classmates please remember this Alumni Day is our 45th and we hope to have an unusually large reunion. Will the members who are interested please contact me, so that we can meet early in the year as a committee to make our plans for the day. (My telephones — Business-TR-6 6800 — Extension 60 — Home KI-7 5466.)

There is one other matter and this is the most important. Please, I urge you, if you have not already done so, give as generously as you can afford to the Centennial Development Fund. Time is short and in order to expand the sound base of the school which already has been established, your participation is absolutely necessary.

At the 'VICTORY FESTIVAL DANCE' on November 30th the members of the class sponsored the "Geritol" group. The 1919 table decor was enhanced by an etching perpetrated by BOB BRAWLEY with a direct libel on the age and dancing capacity of two of the occupants. The "girls" who naively admitted that they were still young enough to be bound by the Lenten fast proved their agility on the dance floor — but the old boys are unraveling their spines and lubricating their legs even as of the date of this publication. The anticipatory "VICTORY FESTIVAL" was justified on the following day.

Since the last publication three of our members have gone to God: REV. HAROLD V. STOCKMAN, S.J., DAN O'KEEFE, and JOE HOLDEN.

FATHER STOCKMAN had taught at Boston College, Holy Cross and Loyola of Los Angeles. During World War II he served as a Navy chaplain in the Pacific fleet operations and was awarded the Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

DANNIE O'KEEFE and his wife, Rita, were killed in an automobile accident on the Merritt Parkway on October 27. Their car skidded into a bridge abutment. Dan owned and operated the New England Spring and Brake Co., Allston. His brother Rev. Leo P. O'Keefe, S.J. is assistant to the Rector.

JOE HOLDEN died suddenly on December 5. He was in apparently good health and had been at business on the day before his death. Joe starred as the angel of Father Ahern's "Passion Play". His beautiful voice and quick wit gave us many a happy hour.

We shall remember "Stock", "Dannie" and "Joe" throughout the years that lie ahead. They were devoted and loyal classmates. Please remember them in your prayers and ask Almighty God to help their dear ones to bear the heavy Cross He has placed upon them.

The sympathy of the class is extended to ED HIGGINS who lost his beloved wife, Anne in November, to FR. RUSS HALEY, who lost his mother and to Mrs. Alice Lyons, wife of FRANCIS J. LYONS, who died in December.

BILL and Marie BOND were standouts at the Alumni Dinner Dance. Although Bill was at the "table for tired blood", he didn't miss an encore.

At Christmas-time it was nice to hear from FATHER JOE FOX, JIM O'DOWD, and MARK LINEHAN.

I had a pleasant meeting with BERNIE McGRATH recently.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to PHIL SAPONARO on the death of his father. PHIL'S father and mother in 1960 celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary.

Father Keating used to tell us, "Nemo dat quos non habet". If our classmates do not send any news, how can any be published? Please send us notes about yourself and your family. We know but little of interest for this issue.

Two deaths may be reported—ROGER CONBOY, who was with us on James Street and later played football at B. C. and Catholic U., passed away in early December. FR. JOE LOWRY, S.J., who taught us at the high school, died during the early fall. Fr. Lowry had been at St. Mary's, St. Ignatius, and St. Robert's Hall since his days at B. C. High and Brooklyn Prep.

ALBERT CHAPMAN has recovered from surgery. His permanent address is Box 1602, St. Thomas, U. S. Virgin Islands, if you would like to write him.

HUBERT GILGAN, Headmaster of Stetson High in Randolph, was featured by a picture in the Boston Herald recently, as chairman of the Jack Ryder Communion Breakfast on Dec. 2. I was able to greet several classmates. If any of you are interested in becoming members of this unique club you are invited to join. Membership in this group is a pleasant experience. Interest in track at B. C. or anywhere in New England is the only requirement. Even if you have never pulled on a spiked shoe yourself, you are cordially invited. You will find yourself among friends.

One of the very important milestones in the lives of all the Classmates, will be this June when we celebrate our 40th anniversary of that BIG DAY in 1923 — Our graduation from Boston College. This will be held in conjunction with the Centennial celebration at the Heights. President of the Class, CECE MCGOLDRICK has made arrangements to have an evening Mass celebrated at 5:30 on Thursday, June 6th, which is during Alumni Week, to be followed by a dinner at Alumni Hall for the Classmates and their wives. Also, he is working on some arrangements to have a luncheon prior to the activities on Alumni Day. We hope to advise all members of the class definitely sometime in May as to the schedule of events. It is now time to start planning to be on hand for that BIG Day.

In case you haven't heard about it, JOE SWEENEY, was the recipient of an Honorary degree from Stonehill College. Congratulations.

FATHER WALTER F. MACK, O.M.I., is now assigned to the Oblate Novitiate at Tewksbury, Mass., recently returning to these parts from Zanesville, Ohio.

BILL NOLAN of Norwell, has been writing an "Outdoor" column for the Quincy Patriot Ledger giving it all his enthusiasm for fishing. He is now associated with several national wholesalers of fishing tackle as a manufacturer's representative. This is good news for any of the fishing enthusiasts of the class. Bill's son, Steve, is a Marine stationed at Quantico, Va., daughter Nancy Jean is at Nazarene College in Quincy, with a career of teaching as her goal, and No. 2 son, Ed, is at Norwell High School.

Another classmate not heard from in a long time is CHARLIE WYATT, who has been living in Taunton, Mass. Your secretary learned that Charlie had a bout with severe illness a year ago, but is feeling fit again, and enjoying good health. He has five children, all of whom are married and is the proud grandparent of 13 youngsters. He is retired from the Boston Mutual Ins.

FR. NORBERT MCINNIS has just completed a new rectory in Melrose, and has already moved in. He extends his blessing and best wishes for a Happy and Healthy New Year to all the "boys".

GEORGE OLESEN is proudly boasting of the fact that he is a granddad.

From Taunton comes word that PAT LYONS is the Director of the Vocational School in that town.

Loyal members of the First Friday Club and always on hand for the meetings at the Old City Club are FRANK HICKEY, CECE MCGOLDRICK and LOUIS TRACY.

WALTER MAYO is still at Bridgewater Teachers College. He and his wife, Helen, went over to Europe last summer to visit with his son, Walter, Jr., a Major attached to the 3rd Armored Division stationed in Hanau, Germany. One of the hi-lights of the trip was a stay in the Bavarian Alps. The Mayos have 18 grandchildren — 10 girls and 8 boys. Would that be the Class record?

LOUIS TRACY has been with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for many years and is Director of Case Services of the Massachusetts Rehabilitation Commission.

DR. ED BURKE was elected Treasurer of the Guild of St. Apollonia — recently the Guild sponsored a lecture at the Museum of Science.

The heartfelt sympathy of the Class is extended to ED GARRITY and his family on the death of his wife, Louise, on September 21st. May she rest in peace.

Also the sympathy of the Class to AL SCHMIZ and his family on the death of his mother, who was a lifelong resident of Cambridge. Requiescat in Pace. Al, as you know lives in St. Louis and was unable to come East for the funeral because of his own ill health.

Confession being good for the soul, let's start out with my Mea Culpa. In my last notes the great achievements of the Cleveland CUSICKS were dutifully chronicled, except for the greatest achievement of all. Ann, 5th in the line, former English and Spanish teacher, is now married and has contributed three granddaughters to the Cusick line.

Met DOCTOR JOE KENNEDY in Jordan's just before Christmas. His standing in the community is best evidenced by the fact six people spoke to him during the ten minutes we chatted. I think he's establishing a more distinguished dynasty than John Kennedy,—the evidence? Joseph, Jr., AB, Holy Cross '55, MD., Tufts '59, is at the Children's Hospital on a Fellowship in Research. Patricia, AB, Radcliffe, MD, B.U.,

'61, is at the Metropolitan Hospital in Detroit. Marcia, AB, Stonehill, '57, is teaching at Brintree High. Anne, AB., Stonehill, '62 is getting married this month to Joseph Ilacqua, AB, Stonehill, '62.

The night these notes were made up, Bryan, the last of JOHN MONAHAN'S brood to leave home, took the plane for Asmara, Africa via France, Rome, Athens and Cairo. Bryan, AB, Stonehill, '61 is with the Army Security Agency. John, Sr. who has retired from the Metropolitan Life lives comfortably at home with Jeanette in Dorchester, the other three children not so far away. Mary Ellen, M.Ed., Boston Teachers College, '59, is married to Robert Curtis of Curtis Farms and has a 6 weeks old girl. Jeanette (do you call a girl "Jr.") is married to Carl Bruce and has a 3 months old boy. John, Jr. married Rosemary Reardon last June, is with the Telephone Company, and lives in Milton.

Pray for the soul of GEORGE HUGHES who died in Washington last May. The news only reached me by a roundabout route last November. Pray also for CHARLIE SHEEHAN. Normally as you know I write news about the living class members but Charlie's family is his crown of glory and here, I break the rule. Helen, his widow is in the accounting department of Lester L. Burdick, Inc. Mary Therese received her B.S. in Social Work from B.C. in '54 and her Master's on a Fellowship from St. Louis University. She is now Mrs. Gerard Riopel (cousin of Hop of H.C.) living in Granby, Conn. and doing Social Work in Hartford. William has just been ordained by Bishop Justin Fields, an English Dominican, in the diocese of Granada, B.W.I. to which he will be permanently attached. He will be home in July to say his First Mass in the U.S.A. at which time there will be a reception, details later. Veronica is now Sister Helen Charles of the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth, Ky. and is teaching at St. Margaret's School in Lowell. Helen is now Mrs. Marshall LaFonde of Falmouth and has five children. Jane is studying in the B.C. School of Education and Laurence is a Junior at St. Sebastian's. Charlie was 34 years a teacher in the Boston High Schools when he died in September.

Just before press time we received word of the untimely death of our loyal correspondent ED O'LEARY. To his family the class extends its sincere sympathy.

It is with deep regret that we must note the passing of TOM RAFFERTY. Tom died on November 17, after what seemingly was a remarkable recovery from severe surgical intervention of a few months ago. Several classmates served as honorary pallbearers at a High Mass of Requiem in St. Brigid's Church, Lexington on November 20. To his wife Lorette and their two fine sons, Pvt. Thomas E., Jr. of the U.S. Army and Michael J., are extended sincere condolences.

What a switch in twenty-five years for BISHOP JOE REGAN from a Communist Detention Camp cell in China to the exalted seat at the Ecumenical Council in the Holy City.

Boston's Mayor Collins showed his usual fine discretion naming Insurance Baron FRED MEAGHER to the highly respected Boston Park Department Board of Commissioners.

A rump meeting of the class—chicken was served—was held at table #25 in the Ballroom of the Hotel Somerset in Boston, where several classmates and their wives sat at the reception following the wedding last October of JOHN HANRIHAN'S daughter Jeanne to Edmund J. Connolly, Jr.

JIM McGUIRE of the Probation Department in Middlesex Superior Court has his third son a freshman at B.C.H. This young man is following the fine example set by his dad and older brothers.

Congratulations to:

FR. JOHN PARSONS, Pastor of St. Philip Neri's Church, has been a Monsignor since November.

AL WARD who recently observed his 32nd year as Clerk of the 2nd District Court in Stoughton.

ARTHUR REILLY, our irremovable class president, who continues each year to steal the show at the Clover Club annual dinner. His 'Waste Basket' routine is the hilarious highlight of this most popular clam bake.

We announce with regret the deaths of two of our old friends: FRANK MAHONEY of Cambridge died in October and JOHN COHAN of Roslindale died also in that month. We shall not forget either. Frank was principal of a school in Cambridge and had been treated for a heart condition. It's easy to recall "big Red" on defense with ED MULLOWNEY on those great hockey teams of our days. John had been for years with Metropolitan Coal, I believe it was, and will be remembered for his easy-going ways, his quietness and his thoughtful consideration of the people of the Roslindale and West Roxbury districts during the war years, when he was in charge of rationing in those areas. Please remember them in your prayers.

Shortly before his death, John wrote the following poem which we think our class and all alumni should see.

ALMA MATER

I saw her standing on the hill
As I was passing by Her arms in Gothic beauty still
Uplifted to the sky
I paused for deep within me
A sad voice seemed to cry
You read life's lessons at her knee
And now you're passing by

I heard her sweet voice calling
As I was standing there
The grains of sand stopped falling
She turned the hour with prayer
I felt her breath upon my face
Caress with loving care
And bless me with a gentle grace
As I was standing there

I could feel her shadow lengthen
As I went on my way
And reach out as to strengthen
A son who could not stay
I know her spirit found me
At the closing of the day
And wrapped its cloak around me
As I went on my way.

Don't have much gossip at all for you this time; whip a line to me, won't you? The only mate I saw at the Detroit game was TOMMY HEGARTY. I'm sure that many of you enjoyed this past season as much as I did, although I don't get to see as much football as I'd like when I work on the stakes. Met DORS and his May, with the SCHROEDER and his Grace at Navy. MURRAY REGAN enjoys them also, as does BOB DALEY, ART GORMAN and BOB O'DOHERTY. Next fall, when you see me wander around between the halves, I'm looking for notes; speak up!

The same two Bobs above, hosted a cocktail party at the Hotel Syracuse before that game; the Schroeders were there, too, but I don't know who else made the trip. Perhaps the coming fall we can have a group for the trip there.

At the dinner dance the night before the Cross game, the DOOLEYS, DORSEYS, SCHROEDERS, GORMANS and the FRANK REPETTOS shared a table. They report that they had a grand time and that we must join them next fall.

ART GORMAN tells me that DR. BOB O. is making plans for our annual dinner and that we will hear from him shortly with the details. Met FR. JERRY FOLEY at the Cross game. As soon as the fine football season closed, the Snooker put his new team on exhibition and it's another fine one. Treat yourself to a game one of these nights; they're fun. At the Brown game were LONG JOHN O'BRIEN, RAYMIE SCOTT, BOB DALEY and ART GORMAN who never miss, and MURRAY REGAN. Bob's son Billy, last year's star, looked on wistfully, along with Tom "Red" Martin, as the boys lost to Clarkson. Young Billy is learning the insurance business.

The Doc tells me that Art, Jr., recently graduated from the college, is working for a Master's degree at the Columbia University School of Finance and oldest boy, Dr. Dave, is interning in Buffalo. The Schroeder is finally a grandpop; young Bob has a son. I see FRANK "RED" GIBBONS occasionally; he's Head of Department at Technical High in Boston and his son Jimmy, a Harvard and Harvard Law grad, is working in New York and was recently married to Elizabeth Sullivan of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Called up JOHNNY DOOLEY looking for news and we gabbed mostly about golf, I'm afraid. He's building a new home in Westwood, to be ready by spring. There's a real B.C. family! If any other in the college's history can touch them, we'd like to know about it. Both parents have B.C. degrees, and each of four children have one; six degrees in all. That sets a record which, to our knowledge can't be touched, and it is a feather in the cap of 1926. If any non '26ers read this and can top it, please let us know. John's daughter Margy, recent graduate of the School of Education, is teaching in Boston, and is being married to Cliff Hoey, also B.C., in February.

For the wind-up, our older daughter Patricia, Mrs. Dick Harrison, has returned East from the San Francisco area, and is now living in Wilton, Conn., with the four children. He's with Honeywell, in New York. At least they're "visitable" now. Both young Bill, owner of a new home in Shrewsbury, and son Paul, living in Worcester, are with the Burroughs Corporation in Worcester. Paul's first, Paul Joseph, arrived recently, making grandchild number seven. Both boys tell me that Worcester is a hot town for two B. C. boys to work in; the whole town is rabidly Cross, so they very meanly took advantage of their Worcester neighbors in the 48 to 12 win. See you around and about. Write; and don't forget to dig down and help out the Development Program. Give while you can see the results of your giving.

In an announcement of the opening of a new professional center in Yarmouth on the Cape, we spotted the name of DR. ALBERT C. FALLON as one of the occupants. Looks like company for JOE BEECHER.

'29 GEORGE P. DONALDSON
30 Blackman Rd., Canton

The prayers and sympathy of 1929 are extended to FATHER LEO O'KEEFE on the death by accident of his brother Dan and his sister-in-law and to the wives and families of CHARLES BOURDELAIS, FRANK QUIRK and JOHN RYAN. Charlie was long an Executive of Coca Cola Company, Atlanta, Georgia. Frank Quirk, a tax authority and civic leader in Akron, Ohio, was assistant corporation secretary and Tax and Insurance manager of Good-year Tire and Rubber Co. John Ryan was president of Lead Fabricators Corp. Kearny, N.J., an X-ray and nuclear radiation shielding firm. We shall miss these good people.

On the brighter side WILL PELTIER's daughter Carol, B.C. Nursing School grad, married this month; HUGH McNULTY's son Harvard Law School, first year National Scholarship winner; HENRY KIEVENAAR's daughter is at Merrimack College; PAUL MARKEY's daughter at St. Joseph's College, Portland; ED WESSLING's daughter to do graduate work at B.C. in education of the mentally retarded; John Mungovan Jr., a senior at B.C. and Chris a freshman; BILL BELL's son is a junior at Assumption College, Worcester. Margaret McLaughlin, GENE's daughter, will soon be one of a very few Alumnae of the College of Arts & Sciences. DR. JIM HENNESSEY can now move back and relax on the B.C. side of the field since his football star son is about to graduate from Holy Cross.

DR. ART MORRISSEY has entertained us with some excellent pictures of his European travels at our last two annual dinners. JOE CAVANAGH and Mary got some fine pictures of the West on their trip to the Seattle World's Fair to go with their earlier trip up the Alcan Highway to Alaska. PAUL and Mrs. MARKEY sailed on the Leonardo da Vinci for six weeks in Europe along with four Cardinals, 37 Bishops, and 100 Priests. Rome and Innsbruck impressed them most and they were in Assisi on the same day as Pope John. Speaking of Innsbruck will recall to many Father O'Malley, S.J. of our college days. Paul Markey's oldest son is a Marine Corps lieutenant at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Home from the wars Paul Broderick, retired from the Navy, teaching in Somerville and living in Newton at 27 Whitney Rd. will be at our next Spring Dinner.

Classes from 1912 to 1962 were represented so no one felt old. Father Rector and the faculty came down from St. Mary's Hall to say hello to everybody. It will be repeated by popular request next year on the eve of the Holy Cross game.

We know that the Cape is in good hands with President FRANK CADIGAN at East Brewster and VIN ROBERTS recently taking up residence at West Dennis. And we have FATHER LARRY CROWLEY out here as pastor of the new parish on the Stoughton-Canton line.

We wish to thank every '29er who paid his $1. class dues. This provides a treasury for spiritual enrollment of our departed classmates in the Seraphic Mass Association as well as caring for printing, mailing and other incidentals including possible loss on our Annual Dinner guarantee.

May you all have a blessed 1963.

Any class notes about you, your families or other '29ers will be appreciated.

In town for the annual Boston Paper Trade Association dinner, the oldest event of its kind in the U. S. paper trade, at the Hotel Somerset, November 10th, was PAUL MAHONY, Vice President of Bowater Paper, Ltd., at New York. While here, Paul visited his daughter, Sheila, a senior at the College of the Sacred Heart.

The man behind the scenes who made all the contacts and arrangements for the highly successful "Conferama" of the City of Boston Employees Association was TED HOPPE, Administrative Assistant to the Deputy Mayor of the City of Boston. The "Conferama" consisted of three days of panel discussions in October at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

TOM KELLY is now sales representative for Serta Mattress Co. in both institutional and retail sales in Suffolk and Norfolk Counties.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the year was the pre-game Victory Festival on the eve of the Holy Cross game, re-activated by the Alumni Association as part of the Centennial celebration. Among those from '30 who enjoyed the festive gathering were: MR. and MRS. JOHN GILOOLLY, DR. and MRS. GARRETT SULLIVAN, MR. and MRS. ROGER O'SULLIVAN, DR. and MRS. CHARLES ROONEY, MR. and MRS. JOHN DWYER, MR. and MRS. JOHN HAVERTY, HON. and MRS. THOMAS J. LAWLESS and MR. and MRS. JOHN GRANDFIELD.

Noted at the Champagne Dinner before the Holy Cross game were that ol' gang of mine: BILL BENNETT, JOHN McNEALY and DICK RYAN and their wives. Also present were JACK CHISHOLM, BUD GORMAN, AL FITZGERALD and PAUL LAJOIE and their wives.

DICK FITZPATRICK has one grandchild, AL FITZGERALD has two and PAUL LAJOIE has three. They don't look like grandparents to me; they are too old for beards and too young for canes!

Charles McCarthy, Jr., is in the Army. Incidentally, if some of you would drop me a line with information about yourself, your children, or your grandchildren, I would get it into this column. Perhaps, when you send your check to Paul Lajoie for the Msgr. Flanigan Fund, you could send him some news. Incidentally, there is about $900 in the Fund.

BUD GORMAN has been appointed head physician for the Boston Schools.

For those who have long thought of a trip to the Wild West, C. GLYNN FRASER might have the answer. Glynn bought a 350 acre ranch, (three sides are in the White River National Forest, 300 miles from Denver) which has been for 30 years a hunting and fishing lodge in the old hunt-in' grounds of Teddy Roosevelt. These past two years he has had the highest elk hunt success in the State and the State led the nation. Plenty of deer, grouse, ducks, and fishing is out of this world: 42 lakes within 12 miles, plus over 100 miles of river and sparkling stream. Glynn is still in business as a Public Relations Council, lives at 27 Skyline Drive, Denver 15, Col. Betty is still putting up with him; Ellen has finished school, is married and has three girls (like Glynn had); Maggie takes her A.B. from Creighton in June; Terry is a sophomore at Marquette. Glynn?—he's tired!

We are sorry to hear of the death of our classmate, LARRY SIMPSON, who passed away last July of a heart attack. Our condolences are extended to his wife, Sara.

We regret to report that our classmate, JOHN F. DOLAN, died suddenly on November 12, 1962. John, who was Assistant Claims Manager for the Aetna Insurance Company, leaves a wife and five children. Our sincere condolences to his family.

Congratulations to the original Frontiersman from Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Father LOUIS DELAHOYDE, recently made Monsignor and a Domestic Prelate. Congratulations also to CAPTAIN FRED MOORE, USN, who has become Captain of the Navy's big attack carrier, Saratoga. Fred, his wife and their seven children reside in Washington, D.C. Congressman TIP O'NEIL was accorded an unusual honor recently by being made an honorary member of the Mayors of American Unity program. STEVE HART, superintendent of schools in Avon, is directing a new educational plan, which may lead to complete revision of the present plan of American education. Avon is one of five towns in the state introducing and evaluating the new program.

Deepest sympathy and prayers of the class are extended to the families of ARTHUR O'CONNOR of Medford and HOWARD (Cyril) O'DELL of Weymouth. Art, who died in August, was a retired Navy Commander and was an attorney for the Boston office of Army Ordnance. Howie died in December and had been in public relations and social work. Class prayers and sympathy are also offered to BILL FERITTER whose mother died this fall.

FR. BILL CONNOLLY, S.J. sends his greetings from Kingston, Jamaica. He is secretary to the Bishop there and wants to be remembered to all our classmates.

We hope that DR. JOSEPH SHAPIRO is feeling much better. He was recently involved in an automobile accident and regretted that he could not attend the "Stag" dinner.

On Sunday afternoon, Nov. 25th the GEORGE CURTINS of Belmont invited the active members of the Class of '37 to a Cocktail Party at their beautiful home. The hospitality was great and everyone who attended had a grand time.

The Class of '37 reserved three tables for the Alumni Dinner Dance held on the eve of the Holy Cross game at Roberts Center. Attending were the following Classmates with their wives: TOM GAQUIN, ANGIE DIMATTIA, BILL DOHERTY, GEORGE CURTIN, ARTHUR DURKIN, DR. FRED FORD, DR. JACK O'HARA, TED GLYNN, ALLEN BOYCE, CHARLIE FALLON, JOE MURRAY, DICKIE SANDERSON, JACK BARRETT and our out of state traveler GEORGE MCGUNNIGLE of Hartford, Conn.

On Dec. 6th, the Class had their first "Stag" dinner of the year. There were 52 reservations. After a scrumptious roast beef dinner, Wally Boudreau, Alumni Secretary outlined the various activities of the General Alumni for the Centennial celebration of our Alma Mater. You will receive notices of all these activities in the near future.

Fr. Rector honored us with his presence and he outlined the needs of the College. He gave us some first hand information how the Fund Drive is going and what the College plans are for the future. He answered many questions asked by our classmates.

The highlight of our dinner was the showing of the films and slides taken last June when we celebrated our Silver Jubilee. We are indebted to FR. JOHN QUIRK (of Donnelly Theatre), BILL DOHERTY and JOHN BONNER. The movies and slides were great and the wives will see these same movies at the Spring Dinner Dance in May.

The class is indebted to the co-chairmen of our Stag Dinner, namely FR. PAUL McMANUS and GEORGE CURTIN. Without their zealous efforts our dinner would still be in the planning stages.

BEN HINES made his initial appearance and was welcomed with open arms.

DICK O'CONNELL of the Boston Red Sox made a late appearance.

MONSIGNOR BOB SENNOTT missed

our Stag Dinner as he is in Rome for the Ecumenical Council.

JOHN BONNER of the Boston Police Dept. is back at school where he was sent by the Police Commissioner to study Traffic at Northwestern University.

The Class extends condolences to the family of JIM QUIGLEY of Lowell who was called to his eternal reward the latter part of this past summer.

We also extend our condolences to CLEM ARCHER who lost his mother and also to JOHN BONNER for the loss of his mother.

Since the last Alumni News we have kicked-off our 25th Anniversary Year with a very successful Dinner at Alumni Hall on Wednesday, October 17, 1962. Among those present (apologies to any we may have missed) were JOHN FINNERTY, TOM BUCKLEY, JIM DAILEY, FRANK RYAN, both JOE BUTLERS, JOHN BAROLIS, TONY DiNATALE, DICK CANAVAN, JIM McMULLEN, PAUL FARRELL, JIM CAHILL, FR. DAVE HUTCHINSON, FR. JOHN McLAUGHLIN, FR. DAVE SYLVESTER, FR. PAUL SWEENEY, FR. JOHN MURPHY, FR. ED STANTON, S.J., JIM MCCARTHY, JIM CASEY (Big Jim), BOB POWER, BILL PRIOR, JIM DONOVAN, CHARLIE BIRMINGHAM, FRANK SULLIVAN, BILL BERGEN. From N. Y. — BILL McINERNEY, PAUL CUNNIFF, JOHN DROMEY, JACK GUTHRIE, JOE HARTIGAN, JOHN (Junny) KING, ED HINES, PAUL MULKERN, GERRY JONES, AL CONNELLY, MAURICE O'CONNELL, ED CORRIGAN, TOM FEELEY, JOE HORNE, JACK (Cambridge) GATELY, BOB CALLAHAN, TOM TRUE, JIM O'DONOGHUE, JIM O'HARE, BOB CURTIS. BOB MURRAY, CHARLIE O'HARA, MONSIGNOR JOHN McMANMON, MONSIGNOR FRANK SEXTON, FRANK GLYNN, JIM REGAN, and GEORGE LYNCH.

The next event on our schedule was Family Day at the B.C.-Houston Game. Despite rather chilly weather we enjoyed tail-board luncheons in a reserved section of the parking space and sat together at the game. Coach Jim Miller cooperated by providing us with another victory.

Next was the Dinner-Dance the night before the Cross game. Everyone who attended agreed that this was the most enjoyable Alumni affair since our undergraduate days. Several members of the class arranged to meet at each others homes both before and after the dance. Because of the limited accommodations it was not possible to have all of our class together but most of those who had their reservations in early, sat at one group of tables. Those attending with their wives were JIM O'HARE, FRANK SULLIVAN, WARREN CRONIN, FRANK GLYNN, DICK STANTON, JIM DAILEY, FRANK RYAN, JOE HARTIGAN, CHARLIE O'HARA, JOHN GUTHRIE, TOM TRUE, PAUL MULKERN, TOM BUCKLEY, JOE HORNE, JOHN MANNIX, DICK CANAVAN, JIM CASEY, DAVE KIMBALL, JIM CAHILL and JIM O'DONOGHUE.

DR. DICK STANTON is a member of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association.

FRANK CORBETT reports that another classmate, BILL MCKEEVER, also lives in Scituate.

HENRY DILLON is editor of the Framingham Free Press. The Dillons have six children and live in Foxboro.

Within a few weeks four members of our class "hit the headlines" recently. On December 9 the Boston Herald carried a story about an interview with JIM O'DONOGHUE, president of the Newton Republican Club. Jim, now assistant to the president of Bay State College, stated his views as to how the State Republican Party should be reorganized. There was also a picture of him, his wife, Ursula, and three of their six children.

Another recent picture showed TOM FEELEY explaining how geography is taught to blind pupils at the Emerson school in Malden, where he is principal.

Monsignor FRANCIS J. SEXTON, vice-chancellor of the archdiocese, appeared with a group on the front page of the Boston Pilot.

Another Boston paper showed Police Lieutenant AL CONNELLY just before he left for Northwestern University to take a course in police procedure methods and training.

Last month a beautiful new gymnasium in the North Quincy High School was dedicated to the memory of WALTER "CAPPY" BRYAN, M.D.C. CAPTAIN FRANK RYAN, JOE HARTIGAN and JOHN MANNIX, who attended the ceremonies, reported that it was a wonderful tribute to "Cappy". The High School principal told about his keen interest in youth and said that he was North Quincy High's greatest athlete. Father A. Paul Gallivan, '39, of the local parish, gave the invocation.

Last Fall at the Syracuse game we met PAUL SNELL who lives in that area. Paul wanted to be remembered to the members of our class and hopes to attend some of the events of our 25th.

JOE SHEEHAN is back in Boston after living in Rye Town, New York. He now makes his home in Natick and is working for the Herald-Traveler. FR. JOHN J. MURPHY, C.S.C., has been named superior of Holy Cross Fathers' Seminary in North Easton. Brig. Gen. BYRON LEARY was recently named as Operations Officer in the Mass. Civil Defense Agency.

Reports this semester have been sliding in on a West-to-East axis. JOHN J. MURPHY, for example, has been located near Yakoto Air Base, a suburb of Tokyo, since mid-summer with his family of two boys and one girl. He is a technical representative of Pratt & Whitney. ROBERT K. POWERS hangs his hat in Spokane, Washington, where he is General Agent for Mass. Mutual Life. Bob invites any BC men in the Portland, Oregon area to drop in at his new Cosmopolitan Portland Motor Hotel for appropriate refreshments. It is reasonable to assume a similar offer stands for Heightsmen in Arizona also, where he is Secretary-Director of Apache Country Club, Inc., and of Powers Water Company at Apache Wells. Bob sounds like a refugee from the New Deal with an M.A., LL.B., M.B.A., C.L.U. and, presumably, P.T.A. — with four boys and three girls.

Toledo, Ohio, continues as operations base for WALTER H. GRADY who represents Hartmann Luggage Company in six north central states. The Gradys, who have four boys and one girl, are prominent in civic and parish activities and gave one of the Marriage Clinic courses sponsored by the Newman Club. EDWARD V. KILDUFF, Executive Director of the Family Service Bureau of Newark, N.J. teaches Education and Advanced Psychology at nearby Seton Hall University. Ned also lectures widely on marriage counseling.

'Thirty-Nine has uncovered a few Board, Committee and Department Chairmen this outing. JOHN LEONARD HENNESSEY is Chairman of the Advisory Board of Arthur Anderson & Company, New York accounting firm in which he is a partner. Len is likewise a member of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Accountancy. J. WILLIAM BIGONESS was a Chairman, too, of the Clarence, N. Y. High School English Department before he moved on to become assistant head of English Language Arts for the Norwalk, Conn., school system. He is now Project Director in linguistics for the Norwalk School Improvement Program. Bill has two boys and a girl. FRANK BRENNAN has been elected chairman of the Executive Committee of the Massachusetts Business Development Corp., and Father JOHN DENNIS CROWLEY, S.J. has been named chairman of the Department of Philosophy at Holy Cross.

Among the shorter entries: JOHN CRONIN'S daughter Diane, enrolled at the BC School of Education, was Miss Sub Turri of 1962. JOE TUSCHER is Vice-President, Personnel at Carter's Ink Company, Cambridge. PAUL NEEDHAM, past president of St. Kevin's Holy Name Society, Dorchester, returned as guest speaker to open their 1962-63 HNS season. On a regretful closing note we tell you of the death, last September, of our classmate and friend Father HERBERT J. COYE. He had been a United States Army chaplain as well as serving in several Boston parishes prior to his last assignment at Most Holy Redeemer Church in East Boston. May he rest in peace.

FRANK BRENNAN was elected chairman of the Executive Committee, Mass. Business Development Corp.

JOE McCARTHY'S latest book, IN ONE EAR, was published recently. It tells of the "funniest jokes, stories and bright sayings of precocious adults and children heard over the years."

'40 WILLIAM F. JOY

44 Lincoln St., Melrose

The class extends its sympathy to the families of JOHN MOYNIHAN and JOHN FINNAN who passed away recently. May they rest in peace.

DR. LEO RILEY has been appointed Director of Research for the new Center for all the Blind. Leo has done a great deal of work in this connection.

Many classmates were in attendance at the Varsity Club Dinner held on January 13. Among those who were there: FRANK AHEARN, CHARLIE McCARTHY, GEORGE SULLIVAN, PAUL GREELEY, FR. BILL CARPENTER, FR. JOE SHEA, DAVE LUCEY, VITO ANANIS, and TOM CUDMORE.

ED BARRETT was acclaimed recently as national Holy Name man of the month. Ed has done tremendous work for the Holy Name Society through the years.

FR. FRANK DISKEN, C.S.P., was visiting Boston during the Christmas holidays. He is stationed in Detroit.

FR. PAUL NASH, S.J., is now at Al-Hikma University, Baghdad, Iraq. He previously spent a number of years at Baghdad College and now joins classmates FR. BILL LARKIN, S.J. and Very Rev. JOHN BANKS, S.J., the president of the University.

The Class is planning a banquet to be held during the Spring. Notices will be mailed at a later date so be on the alert.

JIM MURRAY is now a full-fledged partner in the law firm of Harrigan, Caulfield & Murray, 6 Beacon St., Boston.

PAUL MCCABE, until recently credit manager locally for Westinghouse Electric Supply Co., has been transferred to New York City.

My apologies to PAUL KENDRICK—my "filing system" revealed a 1959 letter telling me of the birth of his son. Paul is with Eastman, Dillon, Union Securities & Co. in New York.

The annual Christmas Party was by far the best yet. Under the able co-chairmanship of BOB FREELEY and BOB DION, the festivities were enjoyed by all of the more than one hundred present. Adding to the seasonal flavor was JOHN BUCKLEY who rescued the Santa suit from his attic, thus bringing back those memorable days of eleven years ago. AL SEXTON dazzled the crowd with a vest, second only in color to Buckley's garb, and in his usually efficient manner ROGER CONNOR made sure that all of the doings went according to schedule. ED SHEEHAN lived up one corner of the room with tales of the Middle East and Africa while GENE GIROUX held forth in another corner contending that Ted Kennedy would not be a candidate for president in 1984. To attempt to list all of those present would consume too much space so suffice to say that it was a great time.

Congratulations to Representative BOB QUINN on his election as Majority Whip of the Massachusetts Legislature. Could it be possible that the Class of '52 may have a future Governor of Massachusetts in its membership?
